The musical score is arranged in three systems. The first system contains the guitar and violin parts. The guitar part is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat), featuring a series of chords. The violin part is in a single staff with a treble clef and the same key signature, playing a melodic line with slurs and a triplet. The second system contains the orchestral parts, labeled 'orch' and '(brass)'. It consists of five staves: a brass section (trumpets and trombones), a woodwind section (flutes, oboes, and bassoons), a string section (violins, violas, cellos, and double basses), and a percussion section. The orchestral parts are primarily accompaniment, with the brass playing sustained notes and the strings providing a rhythmic and harmonic foundation.
